SENIOR WILL

I, Wilma Lee Adkins, do will some of my height to Myra McGuire.

I, "Lois Lane" Allen, do will my ability to catch Superman to anyone who is woman enough to take him.

I, Elvis Canterbury, do will my driving ability to Douglas Grimmatt and Junior Comer.

I, William D. Comer, Jr., do will my motorcycle to Mr. Newton.

I, Philip Dale Dillon, do will my ability to catch muskrats to Junior Comer, he needs help badly.

I, Teresa Faris, do will my ability to be a good loser to Floyd, he sure needs it.

I, Mary Louise Gore, do will my everlasting love to Robbie.

I, Rudolph Ricardo Gore, do solemnly will my willingness to live and party, and my driving abilities to Jerry Mann, who needs it badly.

I, Douglas Owen Grimmatt, do will my books and hard times to all the underclassmen.

I, Rhonda Lynn Gunnoe, being of sound mind and body, do will everything I've got to anybody who doesn't have any of it.

I, Sarah Etta Keatley, do will my place on the riding mower in the cemetery to my little sister, Libby "Kid" Keatley.

I, Thomas W. Keatley, do will my ability to hunt to my two cousins, Jimmy and Johnny Faris.

I, Floyd Zane Light, do will my extraordinary wit, debonair personality, good looks, and curly hair to Talcott's next "Acne Boy" he'll need them.

I, Wayne E. Lilly, will my knowledge of how to flag a test to Earl.

I, Mary Ruth Mann, do solemnly will nothing to anyone because Peaches has got it all.

I, Joyce Marie Martin, do solemnly will my first, my last, my everything, and more to Bucky.

I, Gary Meadows, do will my ability to drive to Junior Wykle.

I, Sterling Neil Morgan, do will my ability to ride a motorcycle to Gary Meadows who really needs it.

I, Maria Margaret McGuire, do soloemnlly will my extra 30 lbs. to my best old ex-friend, Rhonda.

I, Kenneth R. Persinger, do hereby will my sideburns and moustache to my dear little brother, Randy, for he is too young to grow any.

I, Roger Richmond, will my height to Gary Meadows.

I, Sandy Richmond, do will my ability to join the army to Teresa.

I, Charles L. Rollyson, do will my supply of suckers to Mrs. L. Jones.

I, James Robert Settle, do will my ability to silently use a calculator in business math to all future business math students.

I, Karen Jean Willey, do will my position as a forward on the girls' basketball team to all rookies at T.H.S.

I, Wilma J. Williams, do will my ability to "know sports" to Mrs. Hutchison's Current Events Class.

I, William Lee Wynes, Jr., do will my Vth to a very close cohort, which you need, L. S.

HOMECOMING 1985

As I was preparing to board my plane, my Green Beret shinging and boots newly polished, I ran into Wayne Lilly, T. W. A. airplane mechanic, who had just completed oiling the brakes of my flight. He told me he had just seen Sgt, Sandy Richmond Cass who had just returned from her honeymoon in the Middle East. As I boarded my plane I ran into (really he spilt booze on my Special Forces Badge) General Gary Meadows, home on leave from the battlefield in the Pentagon's Officer's Bar. When I entered the 1st class section of the jet I found Sgts, Ricky Gore and James Settle playing Army Pinochle while being waited on by Airman 3rd class Neil Morgan. Also aboard my flight was my old classmate and 1st woman president, Karen Willey, who was still demanding to do everything reserved for men. On arrival at Pence Springs International Airport (the title of a new song just released by the Sizzlers Louise Gore and Wilma Adkins), I was met by the red cap reporter, Doug Grimmett, who wished to tote my bag for $5.15. Since it was only ten feet to the lobby I didn't need him. As I was waiting I saw boarding their plane, Pilot Kenneth "Crash" Persinger and Co-pilot Dale "May Day" Dillon along with Tom Keatley, the world's first male stewardess. Waiting to take me to the homecoming was my cabbie, Susan "Hot Wheels" Williams. She was taking me to where I was staying with Myra McGuire Hardesty. On arrival I was informed she had just enrolled in kindergarten, Little Freddie Jr., the world's first eight foot five year old. Needless to say, he would get along with his kindergarten teacher Miss World, Sarah Keatley. As we drove to the homecoming game through downtown Pence Springs, I had a quick glimpse of Roger Richmond's Rehabilitation and Training Center for Homeless Piggies. Arriving at the multi-million dollar Rodes Memorial Stadium, I paid my way in. My ticket was given to me by Lois Allen who manages the ticket office when she isn't working in the principal's office. Before the game I went for refreshments served by master waiter, Elvis Canterbury. I had a famous "Faris Burger" prepared by Talcott's chief cook, Teresa Faris, who was ably assisted by Jeannie "Chef" Williams. Leaving the snack bar I entered the gymnasium where I saw many of my old classmates. Sitting near the bench in case of injuries was Dr. Charles Rollyson with his two registered nurses Mary Palmer Mann and Joyce Martin Dodd. Sitting nearby was Junior Comer who was still in school trying to pass four years of English. Over near the stands still leading cheers was Rhonda "Rah Rah" Gunnoe. At half-time a real treat, as we were entertained by one of our favorites, Billy Wynes, who gave us a fancy basketball exhibition. Billy is now playing with the New York Knicks.

But all things must end as tomorrow I return to base to await my next Homecoming.

Sincerely,

Capt. Floyd Light, U. S. Army
