Class History

In 1948, forty-three bashful freshmen entered the halls of Talcott High School. That year, Mrs. Massey and Miss Meadows were our sponsors. Our class officers were: President, Jimmy Graham; Vice President, Tommy Wann; Secretary, Chubby Halloran; Treasurer, Maxine Perdue.

The sophomore year was a quiet one for us, only we weren't as bashful as before. Mr. Hill, one of the new teachers we welcomed that year, was our sponsor. Our officers were: President, Lorene Garten; Vice President, Preston Hedrick; Secretary, James Miller; Treasurer, Maxine Perdue.

As Juniors, we all remember our play, "Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost," and the Junior-Senior Banquet. Mr. Hill was still our sponsor and the officers were: President, Lorene Garten; Vice President, Betty Boyd; Secretary, James Miller; and Treasurer, Imogene Smithson.

When we came here as Seniors, proud as we were, we were only waiting for graduation. Mr. Hill was still struggling on as our sponsor, and our officers were: President, Lorene Garten; Vice President, Frankie Martin; Secretary, Patty Kestley; and Treasurer, Imogene Smithson.

CLASS PROPHECY

The other day about the time when you get in a dreamy mood, my thoughts wandered into the future a few years to the Senior Class of Talcott High School. In looking ahead, I found that Betty Boyd is now in charge of the largest Reducing School in the United States. Also Betty Nelson is playing a small part in managing this school.

Lorene Garten now Mrs. Preston Hedrick has more kids than she can possibly take care of so Imogene Smithson is on duty 24 hours a day.

Maxine Perdue is now a broken down old school marm, not married, but just praying for the day when Keith Willey will get the money to buy her a ring.

Jimmie Graham who was married before school was out is just too old to cut the mustard as his wife sees to that!

Ruth Richmond is still as pretty as ever, and is owner and operator of Richmond's Beauty Shoppe. Gladys Shumate is on duty on Saturday afternoons for the rush.

Still further I gaze and see that Frank Martin is a professor. Professor of what?

James Miller is now 6 feet tall as Perry Wiseman, M.D. performed some surgery on his gland trouble assisted by nurse Patty Keatley.

Later on I saw John Fink and Carl Adkins walking down the street in the big city of Hinton, with their bald heads, walking canes, and two pints of whiskey sticking out of their hip pockets.

Kay Partis and Sterling Morgan live side by side, with their families feudin', fussin', and fightin'.

James Andrews is now a preacher portraying the role he played in the 1952 senior play.

Johnny Maddy is a school teacher beating in the heads of 50 students hockkeeping as he liked it so well in high school.

Marvin Loudermilk and Junior Lively are working together as telegraph operators fussing over which one knows the most about the job.

Our little midget, Vera Meadows is earning three dollars a day in a circus, climbing through bars.
